JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
 Joint Meeting of the Missouri Bar and Judicial Conference
 Kansas City, Missouri
 20 - 23 September 1989

Chief Judge William Billings has invited you to speak before the Joint Meeting of the Missouri Bar and the Judicial Conference on either Thursday or Friday, 21-22 September 1989 in Kansas City, Missouri. The audience would include members of the Missouri State bench and bar. Judge Billings also invited you to speak to this group at their September 1988 conference. Due to the overlap with the St. Louis Law Day audience and your foreign travel plans for September, you declined the invitation.

Since September 1989 is too far in the future to make a definite commitment, I recommend an interim letter. If you agree, I have attached a letter for your signature.

Dear Bill:

I appreciate your invitation to address the Missouri Bar and Judicial Conference in September 1989. Although I am unable to commit to a date this far in advance, it was good of you to give me the early warning. I will certainly keep your conference dates in mind and we can talk further as the time approaches.

Please give my warmest regards to all your members. I enjoyed seeing many of them at the St. Louis Law Day banquet.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Bill

Dear Judge Webster:

Thank you for your letter of April 4, 1988. I regret that your schedule will not permit you to speak to the combined Annual Meeting of the Judicial Conference of Missouri and the Missouri Bar this September.

Now about next year! The annual combined meeting will be held in Kansas City September 20 - 23, 1989. I would like very much to have you address this group here on Thursday or Friday during an assembly either before noon or shortly thereafter. If you will advise me as to which date you might be available, I will arrange the schedule to meet your desires in the matter.

I still hope to get to Washington to visit my friend Dick Marsh and, if so, will try to see you. At the present time I am planning on seeing you in St. Louis on April 29.

Sincerely,
